Malt, of all foods, is one of the most quickly turned by digestion into nourishment. The best of malt is used in making Budweiser—hence its food value. Immaculate cleanliness in process and surroundings and perfect pasteurization of product and bottles make Budweiser a pure beverage. So—there's pure food and drink in

NOTICE.

An Ordinance Relating to the Police Department.

In compliance with the votes taken by the Common Council of the City of Bridgeport, at a meeting held April 24, 1916, the following ordinance was adopted to wit:

Be It Ordained by the Common Council of the City of Bridgeport: That paragraph one of Section 303 (a) of the Ordinances of the City of Bridgeport as heretofore amended, the last amendment being February 21, 1916, be amended by striking out the word "ten" before the word "lieutenants" and substituting in place thereof the word "thirteen," and by striking out the word "ten" before the word "sergeants" and substituting in place thereof the word "thirteen" so that paragraph one of said ordinances shall read as follows:

Section 303 (a) The regular police force shall constitute of a superintendent of police, four captains, thirteen lieutenants, thirteen sergeants, five detective sergeants, a clerk of the police department, nine doormen, and as many patrolmen as the common council shall from time to time designate. Provided that until further action by the common council the number of patrolmen shall be one-hundred and ninety.

The seventh paragraph of Section 303 (a) as heretofore amended, is hereby amended by striking out the word "nine" before the word "sergeants" and substituting in place thereof the word "thirteen" so that said seventh paragraph shall read as follows:

The Board of Police Commissioners may change the person so detailed at their discretion. The Clerk of the Police Board shall have the rank and pay of a Sergeant. Said two sergeants shall be in addition to the thirteen sergeants provided for in the first paragraph hereof.

Adopted, April 24, 1916.
Approved, April 29, 1916.
